Get crafty with cardboard

With a few household items and those cardboard boxes your gifts arrive in, you can help your kids make a wearable polar bear just like the one on the front cover. Check out the easy-to-follow instructions on the next page.

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

1 LARGE BOX

1 SMALL BOX

GLUE

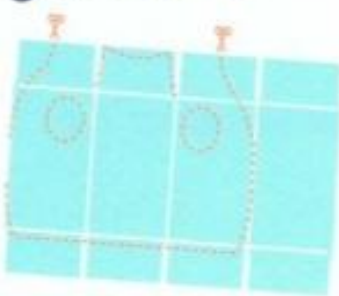

SCISSORS

DECORATING
SUPPLIES

LET'S GET STARTED

1

Cut open the large box and lay it flat. Cut away one side panel and set aside. Use the remaining three panels to cut out the armholes and the bear belly.

FOLD

2

Fold both corners of the top center panel at an angle so the bear belly fits like a vest.

3

Glue the folded flaps from the center panel to their corresponding left and right panels.

4

Cut out the bottom of the smaller box for the head of the bear.

CUT

5

Grab the extra panel. Cut out two paws, two straps for the paws, two ears, and one tail.

6

MAKE SURE IT FITS

Glue the straps to the back of the paws and leave enough space to fit your hands.

GETTING CLOSE!

7

Glue on ears to the small box and glue tail to the back of the large box.

8

Decorate your bear and get ready to roar!
